Municipal Lighting is Much of a Snare.

TOWNS THAT HAVE TRIED IT

Are Disgusted With the Service, and Many Have Sold Out to Private Corporations. Poor Light at Great Expense—Some Opinions From the Press of the Land.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—There is no more important question before the taxpayers of the city than the idea of erecting and conducting a municipal light plant, and I deem it my duty, as a taxpayer and a progressive citizen, to argue once more against increasing the public debt when the history of such movements shows no gain, either in money saved or service rendered.

Under the present system the number of municipal officials is limited. Parties holding political power and those who anticipate a term of office must have more plums to scatter among their friends. East Liverpool is not the only town affected in this way. There are others, but the movement is not meeting with any great degree of success because of the disastrous experience of many places.

The plan of investing state and municipal funds in commercial enterprises has been repeatedly tried in this country, and in every instance has signally failed. Massachusetts invested $18,000,000 in railroads, and of the whole amount only saved $6,000,000. According to the state treasurer's report, nearly one-half of the public debt was caused by the state's connection with railroads. Philadelphia's management of its own gas works involved the taxpayers in a loss of $3,500,000.

Wheeling, our near neighbor, is another illustration. There an electric plant of 400 arc lights was installed to burn all night. Steam was the power, and coal only a dollar a ton. It was claimed the plant could be put in working order for $26,000. This amount was afterward raised to $40,000, then to $60,000, while the actual cost proved to be $125,000. The advocates of municipal ownership argued that the 400 lights could be burned at a cost not to exceed $14,000 a year if the city owned the plant, or at the rate of $35 per lamp. The prospect was flattering and the plan was adopted, the city being bonded for $80,000 at six per cent interest. Over $22,000 was drawn from the gas works fund, installing the plant, the principle being payable at the rate of $8,000 a year. Six dynamos were put in position, five circuits being used, and one machine was kept in reserve. Soon after starting the armatures began to give out, and lamps were taken off, in the hope of relieving the dynamos, but it did not answer the purpose. In 1894 they were compelled to buy another dynamo and cut down the number of lamps on each circuit, making six instead of five. The city clerk reports the cost of maintaining lights one year, $30,142, not including interest, depreciation, taxes, insurance and water rent. Something more than the $14,000 promised by the advocates of municipal ownership! More than double the amount promised the taxpayers, and $40.24 per light more than the private company asked.

Statements were scattered over the country that Little Rock, Ark., only paid $51 per light after the city built a plant. Many cities based their calculations on this statement, but in the plant, and lost money. The clerk of Little Rock was instructed to prepare a report, and when it was done he showed the municipality to be paying on moonlight schedule, not including interest, depreciation, taxes or water rent, just $30.43 a year for every lamp. Then the mayor made a report in which the statement was made that the plant was composed of antiquated machinery, and at that time $30,000 was spent in repairs, while $9,622.70 had been expended in the same way previous to this time. This is a fair sample of the practical working of municipal plants.

Many cities have been induced to try municipal ownership under false pretenses. Their councilmen were deceived by false figures regarding the cost. After adopting the plan they find that electric lights cannot be run, as successfully, or furnished as cheaply, as when in the hands of a private corporation. Greenville, S. C., sold its entire plant to a private company, agreeing to pay them $100 per lamp per year for 15 years. Carrollton, Ga., sold out and gave up the business, the reason being given that "the town could not run it satisfactorily, and for the purpose of getting better lights." Stockton, Kan., after a thorough trial and heavy losses, gave up the business, and is now trying to sell its plant. Lyons, Iowa, wants to sell out. The plant cost the city $20,000, and on moonlight schedule lights could not be produced for less than $92.63, and with that the streets were only lighted until midnight. Morcine, Mo., is in the same procession. The first cost was $16,000, and the expenses exceeded the revenue by $960. Marietta is another instance, its light being produced under the most favorable circumstances, and yet it could not be made to pay. Michigan City, Ind., has been cited as having found a world of wealth in the lighting business, yet the plant which cost $10,000 was recently sold to a private company for $2,500. Portland, Ore., tried it, and the other day the council resolved to sell out, the plant being too much of a luxury. Titusville, Pa., was induced by fabulous statements of theorists to enter the business of making light, and invested $10,000. The lights were miserable, and the service very poor. Now there is a strong sentiment favoring a sale to some private individuals. Moline, Ill., shines in their line better than the light it produced after spending $15,000 for a plant. The experiment was a failure, and after four years of trial the whole thing was sold for $8,000. As proof that there is depreciation in the value of light plants we have Wabash, Ind. The dynamos and lamps used in lighting the city were sold for $30 after being in use six years. They cost originally just $18,000.

The press of the country has said some caustic sentences in referring to municipal ownership. "What is everybody's business is nobody's business," says the Electrical Engineer, and Modern Heat and Light says: "Commercial lighting is, in every sense of the word, a private enterprise, one which is entirely outside the pale of municipal necessity." "Whoever has given close attention to the progress of municipal politics must shrink from adding to the opportunities and inducements to mismanagement and personal aggrandizement at the public cost," says the Boston Journal in referring to this matter. The Easton, Pa., Express says, in speaking of the city's light: "If our street light was done economically and efficiently, there would be no cause for criticism, but the fact is the cost is excessive and the service abominable." "The Roman empire," says the New York Sun, "made about the same experiment in the fourth century, with the consequence that not only the empire, but also society itself went to pieces." Says the Cincinnati Times-Star: "We have had a taste of government ownership right here in Cincinnati, and the flavor has not yet gone from our mouths." "The constant element in municipal affairs," says the North American Review, "is the unrelenting desire of the politician to gather masses of votes, and of the contractors to place men who furnish them to prey upon the city treasury. The people who do not pay are always ready to create debts against the people who must pay."

Then there are scores of other newspapers in all parts of the country condemning the movement as unwise and dangerous, affording opportunities for corruption which should not be permitted.

There is another matter to which I cannot but refer. The city council should do nothing until the question has been thoroughly investigated. Not a step should be taken until the company now lighting the city have had an opportunity to present their case, and show their side of the matter. This is in justice to the company and the taxpayers. The people, who must pay for municipal lighting, whether it is done by a private corporation or the city itself, demand that they have all the facts that can be gathered before a cent of public money is expended, and this cannot be done without the company being given a fair, impartial hearing.

Several Scores Were Found in a Rye Field.

The rye in a field owned by Riley McKinnon was cut the other day, and a large number of boys from the upper part of the city were present to see the operation. One of them discovered a rabbit, and then the fun began. It was chased away, and the boys looked for other rabbits. Long and earnestly was the hunt carried on, and when evening came the youngsters had succeeded in chasing over 40 of the long-eared animals from the field.

YOUTH WON THE GAME

The Old Crockery Team Went Down to Defeat.

THEY KNOW HOW TO PLAY BALL

Eclipse Did Not Do Their Best By Any Means, and the Game Was Full of Errors. A Big Crowd and Abundant Enthusiasm Was There.

The benefit game between the Crockery City and Eclipse teams at West End park, yesterday afternoon, drew an unusually large crowd, although the old timers need some practice to be able to put up a good quality of ball.

In the first inning Crockery was shut out, while the Eclipse made one on hits and a passed ball.

The second inning, after W. Smith had struck out, Chal Stewart was hit with the ball, and went to first. Kinsey sent one to short, and Stewart was out at second. George Rowe made a two base hit, and Kinsey began to run too fast and became overbalanced, ploughing the earth up in an attempt to slide into third; but he was put out by Godwin. The Eclipse scored two on an error by Baz Rowe and hits by Webber and Lynch.

When Jackey Rowe appeared at the bat in the third inning he was greeted with cheers, but struck out, going to first on the catcher's error. He failed to score, however, as the other three men were put out. The Eclipse also received a goose egg in their half, and both teams were shut out in the fourth.

In the fifth Crockery scored three on errors by numerous of the Eclipse players. The Eclipse made two in their half on hits and errors.

In the sixth Crockery scored another on a hit and an error, while the Eclipse were again shut out.

Each team scored three in the seventh inning on combination of hits and errors.

The eighth inning the Crockery boys scored two on three hits, and an error by Lester. The same inning the Eclipse scored three on a home by Frey and two errors. In the ninth Crockery was shut out, and the game was over. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The old timers showed that they could play ball at one time, and it would have only needed the rules of '78 for them to defeat the Eclipse team.

It seemed to be the general impression that the Eclipse team should have played to shut out the Crockery, instead of making the many intentional errors, and reminding the spectators of the Wheeling game.

W. Smith showed by his lining them down to second that he could still catch runners trying to steal. Chal Stewart played second base in much better style than did Lester for the Eclipse. He seemed to be at home on the ball field, and took everything that came his way without an error. Ed Smith's first base play was as good as could be wanted by any team, but he don't like a mitt. Howarth, in right field, made a catch of a fly in the ninth inning that was a dandy, and was heartily applauded. Tom Pickal is still up in the game, and filled his position in excellent style, besides pitching a good game. George Rowe at short, was weak in fielding, but knew how to hit the ball hard when he came to the bat. Baz Rowe's third base play was not the best in the world. He was good on fly balls, but when he did stop grounders, threw them to the fence in an effort to put the runners out at first. Loom Kinsey in left field seemed to want to fall down most of the time, and as a result everything that went his way was a safe hit. Jackey Rowe, in center, didn't have anything to do, but by the way he caught flies while practicing, it wouldn't have been safe to knock them his way. Taking the team altogether they were good batters, and it would have undoubtedly been a hard task for the Eclipse team to shut them out.

The game yesterday was no test between the old timers and young blood, as some of the Eclipse team played as though they wanted to show how easy it was for them to make errors.

ANOTHER ASPECT.

The Action of the Board of Education Was Not Legal.

Mr. McClain, member of the board of education, is laughing quietly in his sleeve because of the action of the board at the last meeting, in resolving to pay debts. According to Mr. McClain, only four votes were cast in favor of the resolution, when the law says a majority of the members elected is required before money can be expended. He knew this and wanted action deferred, but one of the gentlemen said he was not paid for coming to special sessions. So the matter remains as it was, and those who worked so hard to defeat the bond issue, and put the present board in a financial hole, are in the same position.

REPAIRING THE STREETS.

Commissioner Finley is Filling up the Holes.

Commissioner Finley has had his force of men at work on Fifth street, fixing up the holes on that thoroughfare, and expects to have the street finished to Broadway by this evening. The paved streets will, from now on, be taken one at a time, until every low place visible has been repaired. It has been suggested that Commissioner Finley ride a bicycle if he wants to discover all the low places in the streets. This will be the last time it will be necessary for the city to fix the streets, as by the new rule the persons raising the pavements must put them in the shape they found them.

RUN DOWN AND KILLED.

J. H. Farr, of Rogers, Was Buried This Afternoon.

J. H. Farr, a leading resident of Rogers, was buried this afternoon in the East Carmel cemetery. Mr. Farr was returning from church, along the road, when he was run down by a buggy, in which was Robert Davidson, who had just passed two vehicles, and did not see him. Mr. Farr's skull was fractured and his body terribly bruised. He was taken home, and died on Monday. Deceased was the uncle of L. T. Morlan, of this city, and was well known here. He was 70 years of age, and was for a long time a leading citizen of Rogers.

FAVORITE TENT

Now Has a Whole List of New Officers For Duty.

The following officers have been elected by Favorite tent, Rechabites: P. C. S., Samuel Douglass; S. Isaac Schamp; C. R., W. Carnahan; D. R., W. H. Douglass; R. S., W. T. Martin; F. S., Frank Robinson; T. M. S., Dunlay; I. G., Joshua Chadwick; O. G., S. Leighton; C. Thomas Hall; T. J. D. Farrish; delegates to grand tent, P. F. McClosky and M. J. Stevens. The delegates will go to Wellston in the morning, arriving there in the afternoon. At least 25 Rechabites will accompany them.

FAST DRIVERS.

There Are Warrants Out For a Pair of Them.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of John E. Hosack and Daniel King, who have been guilty of fast and reckless driving. Officer Whan made both complaints, and the pair will probably be summoned before the mayor today to answer the charges. Hosack was arrested and fined once before on a similar charge.

Charles Gallagher's trial, listed for today, has been postponed at the request of the accused's attorney. The case may be heard tomorrow.

JOINED THE REGULARS.

Timothy Williams Will Not Work Out His Fine.

Timothy Williams, who took French leave of the city a week since, it is reported, has joined the regular army, and all prospects of him returning and working out his fine with the street force are very remote, indeed. In his new line of duty Timothy will be under more restraint, which will greatly interfere with his much desired privileges.

A NEW FIRE PLUG.

It Will Be Placed Where It Has Long Been Needed.

A request has been made that a fire plug be placed at the corner of College and Robinson streets. The matter has been referred to fire committee of council, and Superintendent Morley will be instructed to place a plug at that point when water connections are being made with the Vodrey pottery.

H. C. WAUDBY IS HOME

The Missing Man Arrived Early Today.

HE WAS GONE ALMOST A YEAR

During Which Time He Could Not Be Found—The Wife and Children Are Happy—He Refuses to Talk About His Absence.

After an absence of almost a year, during which period his whereabouts were a complete mystery, Harry C. Waudby this morning returned to his wife and children, who had long since given him up as dead.

Waudby left here Aug. 26, and went to Pittsburg, giving out that he intended to travel for an advertising concern. After reaching that city he disappeared, and all trace of him from that day until this was lost. As he had in his possession a considerable sum of money, it was feared that he had met with foul play. Mrs. Waudby was almost distracted over the continued absence of her husband, and telegraphed all over the country endeavoring to find him. His relatives were communicated with, but could throw no light on the matter. Advertisements were printed in this country and abroad, but all in vain. A few minutes past 5 o'clock this morning Mrs. Waudby was awakened by a tap on the window. She asked who was there, but received no answer. Hastily dressing she went downstairs, and opening the door beheld her long-lost husband. With a cry of joy Mrs. Waudby greeted him. To all inquiries as to why he staid away or where he had been he refused to answer. To a reporter he said that during his absence he was in Canada, and had gone to that place from Pittsburg. While away he was ill for a time, but looks well now, and is surprised. To all other questions he was mute. Mrs. Waudby keeps a boarding house on lower Broadway.

FIGHTING IN BEEBA.

Strikers and Deputies Are Hard at It This Afternoon.

CLEVELAND, July 1.—[Special]—A telephone message from Berea, where the works of the Cleveland Stone company are located, says that a big riot is in progress this afternoon. Several hundred men are on strike, and the company have attempted to operate the plant with strangers. The deputies in charge of Sheriff Leek are at this hour—3 p. m.—engaged in a hand-to-hand conflict with an overwhelming force of strikers and their sympathizers. Over 100 shots have been fired, and several persons on each side have been wounded. It is said that two men have been killed.

At 3:30 o'clock the sheriff telegraphed the condition of affairs at Berea, to Governor Bushnell, and asked that four companies of soldiers be ordered to the spot at once. The sheriff has exhausted every resource, and cannot control the strikers.

AN IMPORTANT SESSION.

The Retail Clerks Did a Lot of Business Last Night.

The Clerks' union held a long and very interesting session last night. One application for membership was received, and a number of questions were discussed. At the next meeting it will be necessary to elect a vice president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. W. Haines, who has accepted a position with a Pittsburgh shoe firm. Delegates to Trades council will also be elected at this meeting. No action was taken in regard to closing on the Fourth, as it is probable that the merchants will decide to take half the day.

HARRIET BEECHER STOWE DEAD.

She Passed Away at Noon Today in Hartford.

HARTFORD, CONN., July 1 [Special] Harriet Beecher Stowe died at her home in this city today at noon. Her name was known wherever the light of civilization shines, and "Uncle Tom's Cabin" won her immortal fame.

Forcible Detention Case.

George Kauffman this morning entered suit against David Davidson, for forcible detention of property. The case will be heard Monday morning by Squire Manley.

Will Leave Tonight.

The American fishing club will leave this evening for Vandegreen's farm, where they will spend three weeks on Beaver creek.

The Old Crockery Team Went Down to Defeat.

THEY KNOW HOW TO PLAY BALL.

Eclipse Did Not Do Their Best By Any Means, and the Game Was Full of Errors. A Big Crowd and Abundant Enthusiasm Was There.

The benefit game between the Crockery City and Eclipse teams at West End park, yesterday afternoon, drew an unusually large crowd, although the old timers need some practice to be able to put up a good quality of ball.

In the first inning Crockery was shut out, while the Eclipse made one on hits and a passed ball.

The second inning, after W. Smith had struck out, Chal Stewart was hit with the ball, and went to first. Kinsey sent one to short, and Stewart was out at second. George Rowe made a two base hit, and Kinsey began to run too fast and became overbalanced, plunging the earth up in an attempt to slide into third; but he was put out by Godwin. The Eclipse scored two on an error by Baz Rowe and hits by Webber and Lynch.

When Jackey Rowe appeared at the bat in the third inning he was greeted with cheers, but struck out, going to first on the catcher's error. He failed to score, however, as the other three men were put out. The Eclipse also received a goose egg in their half, and both teams were shut out in the fourth.

In the fifth Crockery scored three on errors by numerous of the Eclipse players. The Eclipse made two in their half on hits and errors.

In the sixth Crockery scored another on a hit and an error, while the Eclipse were again shut out.

Each team scored three in the seventh inning on combination of hits and errors.

The eighth inning the Crockery boys scored two on three hits, and an error by Lester. The same inning the Eclipse scored three on a home by Frey and two errors. In the ninth Crockery was shut out, and the game was over. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The old timers showed that they could play ball at one time, and it would have only needed the rules of '78 for them to defeat the Eclipse team.

It seemed to be the general impression that the Eclipse team should have played to shut out the Crockery, instead of making the many intentional errors, and reminding the spectators of the Wheeling game.

W. Smith showed by his lining them down to second that he could still catch runners trying to steal. Chal Stewart played second base in much better style than did Lester for the Eclipse. He seemed to be at home on the ball field, and took everything that came his way without an error. Ed Smith's first base play was as good as could be wanted by any team, but he don't like a mitt. Howarth, in right field, made a catch of a fly in the ninth inning that was a dandy, and was heartily applauded.

Tom Pickal is still up in the game, and fielded his position in excellent style, besides pitching a good game. George Rowe at short, was weak in fielding, but knew how to hit the ball hard when he came to the bat. Baz Rowe's third base play was not the best in the world. He was good on fly balls, but when he did stop grounders, threw them to the fence in an effort to put the runners out at first. Loom Kinsey in left field seemed to want to fall down most of the time, and as a result everything that went his way was a safe hit. Jackey Rowe, in center, didn't have anything to do, but by the way he caught flies while practicing, it wouldn't have been safe to knock them his way. Taking the team altogether they were good batters, and it would have undoubtedly been a hard task for the Eclipse team to shut them out.

The game yesterday was no test between the old timers and young blood, as some of the Eclipse team played as though they wanted to show how easy it was for them to make errors.

ANOTHER ASPECT.

The Action of the Board of Education Was Not Legal.

Mr. McClain, member of the board of education, is laughing quietly in his sleeve because of the action of the board at the last meeting, in resolving to pay debts. According to Mr. McClain, only four votes were cast in favor of the resolution, when the law says a majority of the members elected is required before money can be expended. He knew this and wanted action deferred, but one of the gentlemen said he was not paid for coming to special sessions. So the matter remains as it was, and those who worked so hard to defeat the bond issue, and put the present board in a financial hole, are in the same position.

REPAIRING THE STREETS.

Commissioner Finley is Filling up the Holes.

Commissioner Finley has had his force of men at work on Fifth street, fixing up the holes on that thoroughfare, and expects to have the street finished to Broadway by this evening. The paved streets will, from now on, be taken one at a time, until every low place visible has been repaired. It has been suggested that Commissioner Finley ride a bicycle if he wants to discover all the low places in the streets. This will be the last time it will be necessary for the city to fix the streets, as by the new rule the persons raising the pavements must put them in the shape they found them.

RUN DOWN AND KILLED.

J. H. Farr, of Rogers, Was Buried This Afternoon.

J. H. Farr, a leading resident of Rogers, was buried this afternoon in the East Carmel cemetery. Mr. Farr was returning from church, along the road, when he was run down by a buggy, in which was Robert Davidson, who had just passed two vehicles, and did not see him. Mr. Farr's skull was fractured and his body terribly bruised. He was taken home, and died on Monday. Deceased was the uncle of L. T. Morlan, of this city, and was well known here. He was 70 years of age, and was for a long time a leading citizen of Rogers.

FAVORITE TENT

Now Has a Whole List of New Officers For Duty.

The following officers have been elected by Favorite tent, Rechabites: P. C. S., Samuel Douglass; S., Isaac Schamp; C. R., W. Carnahan; D. R., W. H. Douglass; R. S., W. T. Martin; F. S., Frank Robinson; T., M. S. Dunlay; I. G., Joshua Chadwick; O. G., S. Leighton; C., Thomas Hall; T., J. D. Farrish; delegates to grand tent, P. F. McClosky and M. J. Stevens. The delegates will go to Wellston in the morning, arriving there in the afternoon. At least 25 Rechabites will accompany them.

FAST DRIVERS.

There Are Warrants Out For a Pair of Them.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of John E. Hosack and Daniel King, who have been guilty of fast and reckless driving. Officer Whan made both complaints, and the pair will probably be summoned before the mayor today to answer the charges. Hosack was arrested and fined once before on a similar charge.

JOINED THE REGULARS.

Timothy Williams Will Not Work Out His Fine.

Timothy Williams, who took French leave of the city a week since, it is reported, has joined the regular army, and all prospects of him returning and working out his fine with the street force are very remote, indeed. In his new line of duty Timothy will be under more restraint, which will greatly interfere with his much desired privileges.

A NEW FIRE PLUG.

It Will Be Placed Where It Has Long Been Needed.

A request has been made that a fire plug be placed at the corner of College and Robinson streets. The matter has been referred to fire committee of council, and Superintendent Morley will be instructed to place a plug at that point when water connections are being made with the Vodyre pottery.

H. C. WAUDBY IS HOME

The Missing Man Arrived Early Today.

HE WAS GONE ALMOST A YEAR

After an absence of almost a year, during which period his whereabouts were a complete mystery, Harry C. Waudby this morning returned to his wife and children, who had long since given him up as dead.

Waudby left here Aug. 26, and went to Pittsburg, giving out that he intended to travel for an advertising concern. After reaching that city he disappeared, and all trace of him from that day until this was lost. As he had in his possession a considerable sum of money, it was feared that he had met with foul play. Mrs. Waudby was almost distracted over the continued absence of her husband, and telegraphed all over the country endeavoring to find him. His relatives were communicated with, but could throw no light on the matter. Advertisements were printed in this country and abroad, but all in vain. A few minutes past 5 o'clock this morning Mrs. Waudby was awakened by a tap on the window. She asked who was there, but received no answer. Hastily dressing she went downstairs, and opening the door beheld her long-lost husband. With a cry of joy Mrs. Waudby greeted him. To all inquiries as to why he staid away or where he had been he refused to answer. To a reporter he said that during his absence he was in Canada, and had gone to that place from Pittsburg. While away he was ill for a time, but looks well now, and is sunburned. To all other questions he was mute. Mrs. Waudby keeps a boarding house on lower Broadway.

FIGHTING IN BEEEA.

Strikers and Deputies Are Hard at It This Afternoon.

CLEVELAND, July 1.—[Special]—A telephone message from Berea, where the works of the Cleveland Stone company are located, says that a big riot is in progress this afternoon. Several hundred men are on strike, and the company have attempted to operate the plant with strangers. The deputies in charge of Sheriff Leek are at this hour—3 p. m.—engaged in a hand-to-hand conflict with an overwhelming force of strikers and their sympathizers. Over 100 shots have been fired, and several persons on each side have been wounded. It is said that two men have been killed.

At 3:30 o'clock the sheriff telegraphed the condition of affairs at Berea, to Governor Bushnell, and asked that four companies of soldiers be ordered to the spot at once. The sheriff has exhausted every resource, and cannot control the strikers.

AN IMPORTANT SESSION.

The Retail Clerks Did a Lot of Business Last Night.

The Clerks' union held a long and very interesting session last night. One application for membership was received, and a number of questions were discussed. At the next meeting it will be necessary to elect a vice president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. W. Haines, who has accepted a position with a Pittsburg shoe firm. Delegates to Trades council will also be elected at this meeting. No action was taken in regard to closing on the Fourth, as it is probable that the merchants will decide to take half the day.

HARRIET BEECHER STOWE DEAD.

The state of trade vindicates the man who first pronounced Major McKinley the advance agent of protection.

When a man becomes greater than his party he usually drops out of sight, and that will be the condition of those few Republicans who favor a snide dollar.

The New York World has sent James Creelman to Columbus in search of campaign thunder to be used against Governor McKinley. The World is unwise.

The esteemed editor of the Steubenville Gazette almost puts himself in the light of a demagogue when he uses the Homestead riots for campaign argument.

After the Richmond demonstration in honor of the late Jefferson Davis, the average southern Democrat should blush with shame when the bloody shirt is mentioned.

With an Ohio woman advocating his cause in the western states, Major McKinley will not lose many votes where ladies are allowed to cast a ballot for presidential electors.

Is view of the exciting political events of the past few weeks and anticipating the noisy time in Chicago next week, it is not out of order to inquire the whereabouts of one Lawrence T. Neal, at one time a Democrat of some repute in Ohio.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

In a week the Democratic hosts will be lined in battle array, and Chicago will see more political fun than has ever before been its lot, despite its reputation as a convention city. Already the advance guard of the party is on hand, and if the wrangling of the factions now is an indication, there will be war in earnest when the rank and file put in appearance. The west howls that the east is conspiring for gold, and the east declares with less vehemence, but equal earnestness, that the west will attempt to pack the convention with free silver shouters, and stampede the delegates in their favor. This feeling is strong, each side making statement after statement. Every day sees the breach widening, and only some miraculous power will bring the warring factions together. Teller seems to stand no chance of winning since the sentiment of the party leaders favor an out and out Democrat, who has borne the burden in the heat of the day, and deserves what reward he can get. Just who this individual will be is a mystery. Several small boomlets have been sprung, but there is no desperate race for the position. Boies, Bland and Matthews are well to the front, with a whole field straggling out along the stretch. Who will lead is not known, but it seems an established certainty that silver will be

WINONA LAKE EXCURSIONS.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for Winona Assembly.

Season excursion tickets to Winona Lake (formerly Eagle Lake, Ind.) will be sold via Pennsylvania lines on and after June 21. The return limit will include Oct. 31, allowing a season's sojourn at this delightful resort. Special low rate tickets, good returning 15 days from date of sale, will also be sold during the months of June, July and August.

Winona Lake is the site of Winona assembly, which affords notable opportunities for recreation, instruction, entertainment and devotion. The assembly grounds, comprising over 200 acres, surround the lake, a beautiful sheet of clear water near Warsaw, Ind., on the Fort Wayne route. Many pretty cottages have been erected on the grounds, which are nicely shaded. The improvements include a fine park, bicycle track and ball ground, with a large amphitheater; an auditorium seating over 3,000 persons; college halls, hotel, restaurants and supply stores. Rates for entertainment at the hotel and boarding houses will be found very reasonable. The fishing is fine, and the large fleet of row boats and steamers afford facilities for delightful boating. The summer school will be in session from July 20 to August 14, in charge of Dr. John M. Coulter. In August a Bible conference will be held under the direction of Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman. Well known educators and lecturers will take part in the educational work. Time may be pleasantly and profitably passed at this pleasant resort, and body and mind invigorated by health-giving recreation and instructive entertainment.

For rates and information about train facilities apply to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines, or address F. Van Dusen, chief assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa. For information concerning the assembly address Rev. R. V. Hunter, Eagle Lake, P. O., Ind.

Under this arrangement round trips may be made for a single fare, but tickets for adults will not be sold for less than 25 cents, nor for children at less than 15 cents. Excursion tickets will be good returning up to and including Monday, July 6.

All the news in the News Review.

ers, John E. Kelly and M. Smith, have heard the testimony of the Rev. Nathan Leighton and his daughter here in the Sarah Ann Angell case, in which she sues for her dower right in the Gould millions.

The plaintiff claims Rev. Leighton was the minister who performed the marriage ceremony which made her and Jay Gould man and wife when Jay Gould was a young struggling surveyor. Mr. Leighton is now 55 years of age, and his daughter is in feeble health and blind, and this is the cause of the commission coming here to hear the case. The defense was presented by ex-Judge J. F. Dillon and Elihu Root, Walter E. Ward of Albany and George S. Coleman looked after the plaintiff's side of the case. Both sides refused to be interviewed, and the utmost precaution was taken to keep the proceedings quiet. It is known, however, that Rev. Leighton made an affidavit before a local justice here in which he testified to the performing of the ceremony in which the groom is noted as Jason Gould. He also gave a description of the parties.

CONFESSED TO A WOMAN.

A Woman's Charms May Bring Cottell to the Gallows.

AKRON, O., July 1.—Just before the state was ready to rest its case in the Cottell trial, Deputy Sheriff Hart was called to the stand and the most dramatic sensation of the trial was sprung. Hart gave the details of a conversation Monday night between Cottell and a mysterious woman who has been visiting the prisoner every day for a week. During this conversation Cottell admitted his guilt and gave all the details of the crime as in his previous confessions which he has since repudiated. The woman has been in the employ of the state, and by bringing fruit and flowers and by various other feminine ways has secured the confidence of Cottell. Four deputy sheriffs concealed themselves in the corridor and the woman warned the statement out of Cottell. The woman's identity is being kept carefully hidden. Hart's testimony was supported by the three others.

Treasury Deficit Decreased.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The indications now are that the excess of government expenditures over receipts for the fiscal year ending will be about $25,500,000, as compared with a deficit of about $43,000,000 for the fiscal year 1895. The receipts for the present month will exceed the expenditures by about $1,400,000.

THE MINERS SURELY DEAD.

Very Little Hope of Rescue at Pittston, Pa.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 1.—The situation at the Twin shaft has undergone no change. The rescuers continue to work under great difficulties. The squeeze is now general, and at the foot of the shaft the loud rumbling noise of falling rock in distant parts of the mine can be heard.

Double timbering is now being resorted to. It is very slow and tedious work, and even under the most favorable conditions the workers could not hope to clear a gangway to where the imprisoned men are in less than a month.

The cave-in at Jeansville some two years ago offers a precedent for the officials of the Twin shaft. As long as there is a possibility of any of the men being alive they feel it their duty to continue the work of attempted rescue. In the Jeansville cave-in six men were imprisoned in a breast of the mine for 19 days. On the 19th day they were reached. Five men were dead and one man was alive. The living man was "Big Joe," a Pole. He is now employed as a carpenter at Hazleton. He has been interviewed on the probable fate of the men in the Pittston mine, and says if they are alive and the air is pure where they are they will be able to live for ten days at least. It is taken for granted there is water where they are, and all of the men carried a good supply of food, which could be used sparingly during their imprisonment.

The appeal sent out by the board of trade is already meeting with liberal responses. A gentleman from New York, who does not want his name made public, sends $1,000. Smaller subscriptions, ranging from $5 to $25, have been received. It is expected the whole country will respond to the appeal.

It is now stated that the number of men in the Twin shaft is between 69 and 72.

CLUBBED A STRIKERS' MOB.

Cleveland Police Dispersed a Crowd of 2,000 Rioters.

CLEVELAND, July 1.—For nearly a month the strike at the works of the Brown Hoisting and Conveying company has continued with frequent though individual attacks by strikers upon workmen who had taken their places. The police have been patient, but at last have dealt the strikers a blow with a heavy hand.

One hundred and seventy employees of the Brown company were marched from the works under the escort of 80 policemen to the car tracks on St. Clair street. A crowd of 2,000 men, women and boys gathered and began hooting and hissing. Two motor cars came along and were signaled to stop, but the strikers yelled "Go ahead; don't stop," and the motormen increased their speed and whizzed by. The police then marched the men in their charge a block further away to a corner and halted for another car, the roaring crowd following. Some one in the crowd threw a big stone, which struck Patrolman Keidel and cut his head open. Deputy Chief of Police McMahon then gave a prearranged signal and the crowd was given a terrible lesson. Forty policemen swung out into line and the other 40 closed in around the men they were protecting.

The first 40, under command of Captain English and Lieutenant Dunn, charged the crowd with riot clubs, and they hit to break heads. Two rushes up the street sent the crowd in that direction flying, and left a dozen men lying on the pavement with bleeding heads. Then the police charged twice in the opposite direction and then down a side street, using their clubs vigorously. They scattered the crowd effectually, and arrested four of the ring leaders, after splitting the scalp of one of them. In the meantime the police guarding the workmen stopped a car almost by force and sent their charges away. No one was dangerously hurt by the clubbing, so far as can be ascertained, but there are scores of broken heads.

OHIO BONDS SELL BADLY.

Difficulty Encountered in Floating Them in New York.

NEW YORK, July 1.—The Ohio sinking fund commission, composed of S. M. Taylor, secretary of state; F. S. Monnett, attorney general, and W. D. Guildard, auditor, are not meeting with the success they anticipated in the sale of state bonds. The commissioners are here for the purpose of paying $250,000 of the state debt, now due, and of floating an additional $250,000 at 3 per cent. They have canvassed the market quite thoroughly, but thus far have succeeded in getting an advance of only $2,000 for the entire amount over the price offered in Ohio, and out of this must be paid a handsome brokerage fee.

If the deal is not consummated, this will be the first time in history that Ohio state bonds have not gone at par or better. The miserable condition of the market, according to Secretary of State Taylor, is due to the silver agitation, and the hesitancy on the part of the capitalists to tie up their funds until the currency question is settled. The commissioners expect to finish the deal and return home by Saturday.

Sued For Debt Paid by Draft.

PORTSMOUTH, O., July 1.—McLaughlin & Co., coffee merchants of Chicago, have sued E. Augustin, a wholesale grocer of this city, for $364. The defendant says he sent the Chicago firm a check for the amount, drawn on the Farmers' National bank, last December. The firm held the check for three weeks, at the end of which time the bank failed. Augustin says he has paid the debt, and that the Chicago firm's failure to realize on the check is due solely to its own negligence. A large number of similar cases will be affected by the ruling that will be made in this suit at the September term of the common pleas court.

Old Soldier Reported Buried Alive.

CIRCLEVILLE, O., July 1.—The village of Turlington is in a state of excitement caused by the report that Sebastian Sowards, an old veteran, had been buried alive. The report started from the statement of a young man who declares while passing the grave he heard noises coming from within. Sowards' relatives have been notified, but they discredit the story. An effort is being made to get their consent to disinter the body. Sowards was subject to cataleptic fits.

Dunn Named For Congress.

KENTON, O., July 1.—The eighth district congressional convention nominated McKelvin Dunn of Logan county for congress. F. M. Marriott of Delaware and H. Crow of Kenton were selected as delegates to the Chicago convention. F. H. Glessner of Findlay and F. A. Thompson of Marysville were chosen as alternates. John P. Brennan of Urbana was chosen elector. Free silver carried everything.

Money In Old Iron.

PORTSMOUTH, O., July 1.—The boys and idle men of this city are reaping a harvest while the city is changing the site of the Gaylord Rolling mills into a park. Large deposits of iron are being turned up, which the boys gather and sell to junk dealers. Many realize as high as $10 a day. The place has been locally called "Cripple Creek."

Smith Making Good Time.

CLEVELAND, July 1.—Lettercarrier Arthur E. Smith of Chicago, the long distance bicycle rider who is now attempting to lower the record between Chicago and New York, has arrived here, covering the distance from Chicago to Cleveland in 5½ hours. He has covered the line 5½ hours better than the best standing record.

Meekison Nominated For Congress.

COLUMBUS, July 1.—Judge D. Meekison of Napoleon has been nominated by the Democrats for congress. Free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver was endorsed. Delegates to the national convention, John Kneenack, Putnam county, and Levi Jacobs, Van Wert county.

Pennoyer For President.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 1.—Pennoyer for president will be the slogan of the Oregon Democratic delegation to the Chicago convention. It cannot be established that Pennoyer has expressed any desire to have it so; but there is little doubt that his name and fame will be exploited long and loudly among the delegates. The state Democracy is in favor of the free coinage of silver.

White Not Out For President.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., July 1.—Senator Stephen M. White was seen in regard to the possibility of his nomination for the presidency at the Chicago convention. He was found trying a libel suit, and when asked about being placed in nomination said: "I am engaged in trying a lawsuit and not in running for president."

Boies Will Stay at Home.

WATERLOO, Ia., July 1.—Ex-Governor Boies will not attend the Chicago convention as a delegate-at-large. He decided to yield his position as head of the Iowa delegation to Judge Van Wagenen of Sioux City.

A Baltimore Carrier's Stamp.

Dr. John Morris of this city has in his possession a stamp which was issued by the carriers of Baltimore antecedent to the inauguration of the free delivery system. Dr. Morris was postmaster of Baltimore from 1857 to 1861, and it was during his administration that the carriers' stamp was employed here. It is a 1 cent stamp.

The stamp was issued by the carriers for their own convenience. The system obtaining at that time, by which they collected the cost of postage from patrons of the postal service to whom letters were delivered, was troublesome to the carriers, and in order to save themselves the inconvenience, the carriers instituted this stamp. It was continued until the act of congress was passed establishing free delivery. The stamp is a great rarity, very few of them being in existence.—Baltimore American.

Seaside Excursions Commence Soon.

TELLER'S POSITION.

Waiting an Invitation to Be the Democratic Nominee.

NAME WON'T BE PRESENTED.

Populists and Silver Republicans in Chicago Hoping Things Will Come Their Way—Say He Could Gain Many Votes in the West.

CHICAGO, July 1.—Delegates to the convention who have arrived generally appear averse to discussing the probability that Senator Teller will cut any figure in the Democratic convention. The senator has a number of personal friends among the silver delegates who have already arrived, and among them are some who would not be averse to his nomination for president. They feel, however, that the conditions are not yet ripe for the springing of his name, and say that it would be opposed to the interests of both Senator Teller and the silver cause to bring him to the front at this time, if at all.

The Populists who are here say openly that Mr. Teller is the only man the Democrats can name that they will endorse. The silver Republicans are not so pronounced. They put the matter less pointedly by saying that Teller is the only man whose nomination would insure the western states to the Democratic ticket.

It is not now the purpose of the senator's friends to have him placed in nomination as others will be. This course, they consider, would be in bad form and contrary to Mr. Teller's wishes. Their plan is not to make an aggressive campaign, but simply to be on the ground to answer questions and to take advantage of any opportunity that may offer.

Congressman Shafroth of Colorado was asked to define the claims of the Teller men, and replied:

"Senator Teller is not a candidate in the sense of seeking the nomination as could a member of the Democratic party. The friends of the senator who cannot stand cold, monomaniacalism are simply trying to impress upon the Democrats the enormous advantage there would be in uniting upon Teller, who could solidify all the bimetallic forces."

"The southern states are sure to cast their votes for any fair nominee of the Democratic party. They never have failed in a presidential year, and it is not likely that they will fail this time. It is from the great western and middle states that there must be a gain in order to bring success, and that gain must come from the Republican party."

In the states west of the Missouri river the Democratic party has been all too disunited, receiving in some of these states less than 10 per cent of the total vote cast. In some of those states there were not even Democratic electoral tickets in the field in 1892, and two years ago all of those states went overwhelmingly Republican. It is very doubtful whether a free silver Democrat having free trade convictions could be elected. At this time, when Oriental competition is threatening the exportation of our American manufacturing industries, it will not be easy to get the votes of Republicans to endorse any pronounced free trade candidate."

HENRY M. TELLER.

He is Willing to Be Struck by Presidential Lightning.

HARRIS FOR CHAIRMAN.

Silver Men Make a Demand on the National Committee.

CHICAGO, July 1.—The committee appointed by the Democratic bimetallic committee to confer with the executive committee of the national Democratic committee is conferring with the gentlemen composing this organization at the Palmer House today. Chairman Harris presides.

Members of the executive committee have assured the silver men that no step had been taken looking to the selection of temporary officers. This has had the effect of causing the members of the bimetallic organization to feel that possibly their apprehensions were unfounded and to conclude that probably there will be no effort at snap judgment. They, however, presented a statement of the action of the bimetallic committee, and asked that that committee be allowed to suggest the temporary presiding officer.

If this request is not granted they will report to their full committee, and the full committee will proceed to select a man for the place, and purpose for his election at the outset of the convention in the face of a contrary nomination by the national committee. This course will not, however, be adopted without full warning to the national committee, in case such warning appears to be necessary. Also in the event that they would consent to a compromise that would allow the national committee to make its own selection of a presiding officer in case they agree to take a silver man and to submit the name to the bimetallic committee before announcing the name.

The silver men are very determined upon the point of not being thwarted in this matter and are giving their entire attention to it. They have told the committee very plainly that the only way to avoid a clash in the convention, and for the national committee to avoid being repudiated is for them to accede to the wishes of the silver men in this matter. They assert that it will have to be made apparent from the beginning that this is to be a silver convention, and that this can be demonstrated in no way so clearly as in the selection of a temporary presiding officer.

The national committee will not meet until noon next Monday, the day before the convention. No one appears to have a definite idea as to what business it will have before it. There have been reports of contests from various states, notably Michigan, Texas, Nebraska, Nevada and Colorado, but Secretary Shearon says that so far he has received official notice of none except that from Nebraska.

The silver men have given very little attention to the question as to who shall be selected to preside, but speculation turns more freely to Senator Harris of Tennessee. It is suggested that the task may be quite arduous for one of Senator Harris' advanced age, but his great experience and parliamentary ability, as well as his popularity in the party, will render him a formidable candidate if he manifests a desire for the honor. The name of Governor Hogz of Texas is also mentioned in connection with the selection.

DETERMINED TO CONTROL.

A Silver Committee Appointed to Confer With the National Committee.

CHICAGO, July 1.—The formal proceedings of the meeting of the Democratic Bimetallic league consisted in the appointment of a committee to confer with the executive committee of the national Democratic committee, consisting of Senator J. K. Jones of Arkansas, Governor W. J. Stone of Missouri, Senator David Turpie of Indiana, Governor J. P. Altgeld of Illinois and Senator J. W. Daniel of Virginia.

The terms of the resolution under which this committee was appointed authorized the committee "to confer with the executive committee of the national committee in reference to all questions affecting and relating to the temporary organization and proceedings of the national convention."

The resolution was discussed at some length, but the meeting was secret and the tenor of the remarks made was not made known except in the most general way. The feeling which controlled the meeting, and which seemed to exist among all those present, was that the situation demanded that no precautions be neglected in making sure of the temporary organization of the convention by the silver majority. It was unanimously conceded that wisdom demanded that the bimetallic organization should put itself in touch with the national committee in order to learn its plans as soon as possible, in order to be able to counteract them in case they should be adverse to the silver interest.

WHAT WILL ALTGELD DO?

Surprise Over the Action of the Illinois Delegation.

CHICAGO, July 1.—The fact that the Illinois delegation postponed its decision as to what candidate it would support in the convention has created almost as much comment as the decision which the delegation reached looking to the abrogation of the two-thirds rule. The only explanation made is that it was considered desirable to look the field over more completely than has yet been possible before taking a position.

It is intimated, however, that Governor Altgeld, who is in complete control of the delegation, has plans of his own which are not yet sufficiently matured to be sprung. Those who have talked with him say that he is especially concerned to secure a candidate on the national ticket who will add strength to the Democracy in Illinois.

INDIAN UPRISING FEARED.

Much Excitement in Northern California After Apache Renegades.

REDDING, Cal., July 1.—Great excitement has been caused by the receipt of a letter containing news of a threatened rising of the Pitt river Indians. Judge Edward Sweeney of Redding received the message, and the author is W. A. Bailey, a farmer, living with his family in the Big Bend of Pitt river, about 60 miles northeast of this city.

The states in the letter that a friendly square came to his house and informed him that the warriors of the Pitt river tribe intended to have a great pow wow near his farm on July 4, gathering as many braves as possible, and designed to follow their savage orgies by a massacre of all the white settlers who live along the north banks of the river. Sheriff Houston is organizing an expedition to hurry on to the threatened region. This tribe is the most powerful and thoroughly organized in Northern California.

Surprised an Apache Camp.

TOMBSTONE, A. T., July 1.—United States troops under Lieutenants Averill and Yates have surprised an Apache camp in Sonora, about 40 miles below the line. The Indians had evidently been informed by a scout of the presence of the troops, as all made their escape except a boy who was captured, together with the camp outfit. The troops, co-operating with a force of Mexican cavalry, are still in pursuit of the disbanded renegades.

THE GOLD RESERVE AGAIN.

A Conference Held and an Official Statement to Be Issued Today.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Curtis has called at the sub-treasury and conferred with Assistant Treasurer Jordan. It is stated that the discussion was informal and unimportant, but the street believes that the gold reserve and gold export probabilities were considered.

Mr. Jordan says that an official statement, presumably on the questions referred to, will be made today.

Cleveland Gone to Gray Gables.

NEW YORK, July 1.—President Cleveland arrived at Jersey City in a special car attached to a regular passenger train of the Pennsylvania railroad Tuesday afternoon. He immediately embarked on a government tug, which conveyed him to E. C. Benedict's steam yacht Oneda, lying in the East River, on board of which he proceeded to Buzzard's Bay.

HAMPTON NOT SORRY.

THE REUNION ON AT RICHMOND.

A Confederate Flag Waved 'Mid the Strains of "Dixie"—A Report on History—A Reception Given to Mrs. Davis and Her Daughter.

RICHMOND, July 1.—The Confederate reunion is on here with General Gordon presiding.

There were frequent calls for Wade Hampton, and as the South Carolinian walked to the front of the stage, the band struck up "Dixie" while the whole audience arose and applauded. A veteran was passed to the front bearing an old battleflag that had been shot through in many places and waved it before the vast assemblage. When General Hampton was permitted to speak some one cried "Louder, louder!" "I used to be able to speak loud enough to make you charge," replied General Hampton. Words, he said, could not express his gratitude for the great honor which has been done him.

He had come to mingle with the veterans, perhaps for the last time, and do honor to memory of that great man, President Davis. The general said he would be still fighting now if the Confederate flag was waving. [Great applause.] He had no apology to make for his course. When his state called upon him he went into war as a private and served his country as best he could. The speaker paid a beautiful tribute to the private soldiers, and in conclusion said the only epitaph he wanted written on his tombstone was that he was a Confederate soldier.

General Stephen D. Lee presented the report of the committee on history. The report recommended the establishment of a chair of American history in southern colleges and universities, and the more thorough teaching of history in the schools, public and private, throughout the south. The report divides history into three classes: First, those written in the north and are totally unfair to the south; second, those written in the north and deal fairly with the south; third, those written in the south.

A reception was given in honor of Mrs. Jefferson Davis and her daughter, Mrs. Hays, in the Confederate museum the last night by the regents of that institution. The museum is the building formerly the white house of the Confederacy.

TELLER REFUSES TO SAY.

He Might and Might Not Accept, if Given a Chance.

DENVER, July 1.—Senator Teller arrived here today and will be accorded a big reception tonight. He was asked if he would accept the Democratic nomination for president. He answered:

"I should prefer not to answer that question. No man can accept or decline that which has never been tendered him."

"Do you think the nomination of Boies or Bland would be acceptable to the free silver Republicans of the Rocky Mountain states?"

"Yes, I think our people would support either of those gentlemen, or any other man of good character and ability who is recognized by those favoring the free coinage of silver."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The First U. P. Sunday school will picnic at Rock Spring tomorrow.

Anthony Smith, of Gardendale, is erecting a new dwelling house at that place.

A number of young people from here attended a festival at Ohioville last night.

Clarence L. Grey, bookkeeper at Goodwin's pottery, is confined to his home by illness.

The household effects of William Wible arrived here from Holly this morning.

Ed Davidson, yesterday afternoon, purchased a fast driving colt from Fredericktown parties.

The Akron pottery is rushed with orders, and will only loaf three days, starting in full on July 7.

The Boston club secured 12 hits from Mercer's delivery yesterday, and won from Washington by a score of 8 to 3.

Engineer George will go to Lisbon tomorrow to give testimony in a case in which the city of Wellsville is defendant.

L. Bently Pope, wife and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Thompson Place, will leave tomorrow for a trip to Atlantic City and Trenton.

The idea of erecting a telephone to Spring Grove campground has been dropped, owing to a lack of interest in the plan by residents of the grove.

Rev. R. B. Whitehead went to Canton this morning to attend the Christian Endeavor convention in session at that place. He will make two addresses there.

The Columbian club entertained themselves and a large number of friends at Rock Spring last evening. It was one of the most pleasant social events of the summer.

The kilnhands at Harker's pottery formed a camping club, and left yesterday morning for Port Homer where they will spend two weeks enjoying life on the bank of the Ohio.

The Irishtown and Young Men's Christian association clubs are playing at West End park this afternoon. The batteries are Costelow and D. McCarran and Ashbaugh and McClure.

"Double Five March and Two Step," is the latest production of Charles L. Tarr, of this city. The march is very pretty, and is fully up to the standard of the rest of Mr. Tarr's compositions.

The Ben Hur will pass up this evening bound for Pittsburg. The Elaine is due down for Parkersburg today. Transportation of coal fleets has again ceased, owing to the falling of the river.

The Niles team have changed their dates with East Liverpool, and will play them on July 11 and 12, instead of July 6, 7 and 8. The change was made on account of the races at Warren next week.

Reverend Reinartz, Henry Smith and Harry Bentley, delegates of the German Lutheran church, went to Freedom this morning, to attend a two days' session of the central missionary league, held at that place.

The Anglers met last night and decided to go to Harmony, W. Va., where they will camp in the Cheat mountains for two weeks. This is the same range in which the club camped last year, but they will go from 65 to 70 miles farther to the north this time.

All the clay departments of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery closed down today until July 13. During the idleness a few repairs will be made at the China works. A number of worn-out flint screens will be removed and replaced with new ones.

While the teams were practicing before the game yesterday a young lady, who was crossing a field, had her white parasol struck and broken by a fly ball. A young lady with her was struck on the head, but not injured, as the parasol served to break the force of the hit.

One day this week, Harry Logan, of Second street, rode across the country on his bicycle, to visit relatives at Imperial, Pa. On the return trip his bike broke, and the unfortunate young wheelman was compelled to cover the remainder of the journey, a distance of 25 miles, on foot.

A team of horses became frightened at the ball ground yesterday afternoon, and in their struggles broke the pole of the carriage. For a time it looked as though they would frighten other teams standing near, but the danger was averted by the prompt action of a well known horseman.

The foundry and enamel works of A. J. Boyce have been unusually busy during the past three months, and the number of employees at work in both concerns have been doubled during the brisk period. Yesterday a shipment of 36 bath tubs was made, and a large number of clay presses are being built.

Last evening as a young man was standing in front of a Washington street business house he picked up a hose which was laying on the sidewalk. Someone turned the water on without his knowing it, and a gentleman who was passing received a dousing, which surprised, as well as angered, him. Explanations followed, and if the boy who turned the water on could have been found both gentlemen would have made it pleasant for him.

The senator has a number of personal friends among the silver delegates who have already arrived, and among them are some who would not be averse to his nomination for president. They feel, however, that the conditions are not yet ripe for the springing of his name, and say that it would be opposed to the interests of both Senator Teller and the silver cause to bring him to the front at this time, if at all.

The Populists who are here say openly that Mr. Teller is the only man the Democrats can name that they will endorse. The silver Republicans are not so pronounced. They put the matter less pointedly by saying that Teller is the only man whose nomination would insure the western states to the Democratic ticket.

It is not now the purpose of the senator's friends to have him placed in nomination as others will be. This course, they consider, would be in bad form and contrary to Mr. Teller's wishes.

The plan is not to make an aggressive campaign, but simply to be on the ground to answer questions and to take advantage of any opportunity that may offer.

Congressman Shafroth of Colorado was asked to define the claims of the Teller men, and replied:

"Senator Teller is not a candidate in the sense of seeking the nomination as could a member of the Democratic party. The friends of the senator who cannot stand cold monometallism are simply trying to impress upon the Democrats the enormous advantage there would be in uniting upon Teller, who could solidify all the bimetallic forces."

"The southern states are sure to cast their votes for any fair nominee of the Democratic party. They never have failed in a presidential year, and it is not likely that they will fail this time. It is from the great western and middle states that there must be a gain in order to bring success, and that gain must come from the Republican party."

"In the states west of the Missouri river the Democratic party has been almost unopposed, receiving in some of these states less than 10 per cent of the total votes cast. In some of those states there were not even Democratic electoral tickets in the field in 1892, and two years ago all of those states went overwhelmingly Republican. It is very doubtful whether a free silver Democratic having free trade convictions could be elected. At this time, when Oriental competition is threatening the extermination of our American manufacturing industries, it will not be easy to get the votes of Republicans to endorse any pronounced free trade candidate."

HARRIS FOR CHAIRMAN.

Silver Men Make a Demand on the National Committee.

CHICAGO, July 1.—The committee appointed by the Democratic bimetallic committee to confer with the executive committee of the national Democratic committee is conferring with the gentlemen composing this organization at the Palmer House today. Chairman Harris presides.

Members of the executive committee have assured the silver men that no step had been taken looking to the selection of temporary officers. This has had the effect of causing the members of the bimetallic organization to feel that possibly their apprehensions were unfounded and to conclude that probably there will be no effort at snap judgment. They, however, presented a statement of the action of the bimetallic committee, and asked that that committee be allowed to suggest the temporary presiding officer.

If this request is not granted they will report to their full committee, and the full committee will proceed to select a man for the place, and purpose for his election at the outset of the convention in the face of a contrary nomination by the national committee. This course will not, however, be adopted without full warning to the national committee, in case such warning appears to be necessary. Also in the event that they would consent to a compromise that would allow the national committee to make its own selection of a presiding officer in case they agree to take a silver man and to submit the name to the bimetallic committee before announcing the name.

The silver men are very determined upon the point of not being thwarted in this matter and are giving their entire attention to it. They have told the committee very plainly that the only way to avoid a clash in the convention, and for the national committee to avoid being repudiated is for them to accede to the wishes of the silver men in this matter. They assert that it will have to be made apparent from the beginning that it is to be a silver convention, and that this can be demonstrated in no way so clearly as in the selection of a temporary presiding officer.

The national committee will not meet until noon next Monday, the day before the convention. No one appears to have a definite idea as to what business it will have before it. There have been reports of contests from various states, notably Michigan, Texas, Nebraska, Nevada and Colorado, but Secretary Shafroth says that so far he has received official notice of none except that from Nebraska.

The silver men have given very little attention to the question as to who shall be selected to preside, but speculation turns more freely to Senator Harris of Tennessee. It is suggested that the task may be quite arduous for one of Senator Harris' advanced age, but his great experience and parliamentary ability, as well as his popularity in the party, will render him a formidable candidate if he manifests a desire for the honor. The name of Governor Hogg of Texas is also mentioned in connection with the selection.

DETERMINED TO CONTROL.

A Silver Committee Appointed to Confer With the National Committee.

CHICAGO, July 1.—The formal proceedings of the meeting of the Democratic bimetallic league consisted in the appointment of a committee to confer with the executive committee of the national Democratic committee, consisting of Senator J. K. Jones of Arkansas, Governor W. J. Stone of Missouri, Senator David Turpie of Indiana, Governor J. P. Altgeld of Illinois and Senator J. W. Daniel of Virginia.

The terms of the resolution under which this committee was appointed authorized the committee "to confer with the executive committee of the national committee in reference to all questions affecting and relating to the temporary organization and proceedings of the national convention."

The resolution was discussed at some length, but the meeting was secret and the tenor of the remarks made was not made known except in the most general way. The feeling which controlled the meeting, and which seemed to exist among all those present, was that the situation demanded that no precautions be neglected in making sure of the temporary organization of the convention by the silver majority. It was unanimously conceded that wisdom demanded that the bimetallic organization should put itself in touch with the national committee in order to learn its plans as soon as possible, in order to be able to counteract them in case they should be averse to the silver interest.

WHAT WILL ALTGELD DO?

Surprise Over the Action of the Illinois Delegation.

CHICAGO, July 1.—The fact that the Illinois delegation postponed its decision as to what candidate it would support in the convention has created almost as much comment as the decision which the delegation reached looking to the abrogation of the two-thirds rule. The only explanation made is that it was considered desirable to look the field over more completely than has yet been possible before taking a position.

It is intimated, however, that Governor Altgeld, who is in complete control of the delegation, has plans of his own which are not yet sufficiently matured to be sprung. Those who have talked with him say that he is especially concerned to secure a candidate on the national ticket who will add strength to the Democracy in Illinois.

INDIAN UPRISING FEARED.

Much Excitement in Northern California After Apache Renegades.

REDDING, Cal., July 1.—Great excitement has been caused by the receipt of a letter containing news of a threatened rising of the Pitt river Indians. Judge Edward Sweeney of Redding received the message, and the author is W. A. Bailey, a farmer, living with his family in the Big Bend of Pitt river, about 60 miles northeast of this city.

Bailey states in the letter that a friendly squaw came to his house and informed him that the warriors of the Pitt river tribe intended to have a great pow wow near his farm, on July 4, gathering as many braves as possible, and designed to follow their savage orgies by a massacre of all the white settlers who live along the north banks of the river. Sheriff Houston is organizing an expedition to hurry on to the threatened region. This tribe is the most powerful and thoroughly organized in Northern California.

Surprised an Apache Camp.

TOMBSTONE, A. T., July 1.—United States troops under Lieutenants Averill and Yates have surprised an Apache camp in Sonora, about 40 miles below the line. The Indians had evidently been informed by a scout of the presence of the troops, as all made their escape except a boy who was captured, together with the camp outfit. The troops, co-operating with a force of Mexican cavalry, are still in pursuit of the disbanded renegades.

THE GOLD RESERVE AGAIN.

A Conference Held and an Official Statement to Be Issued Today.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Curtis has called at the sub-treasury and conferred with Assistant Treasurer Jordan. It is stated that the discussion was informal and unimportant, but the street believes that the gold reserve and gold export probabilities were considered.

Mr. Jordan says that an official statement, presumably on the questions referred to, will be made today.

Cleveland Gone to Gray Gables.

NEW YORK, July 1.—President Cleveland arrived at Jersey City in a special car attached to a regular passenger train off the Pennsylvania railroad Tuesday afternoon. He immediately embarked on a government tug, which conveyed him to E. C. Benedict's steam yacht Oneida, lying in the East river, on board of which he proceeded to Buzzard's Bay.

Hampton Not Sorry.

Glad He Was a Rebel and Praised Jeff Davis.

THE REUNION ON AT RICHMOND.

A Confederate Flag Waved 'Mid the Strains of "Dixie"—A Report on History—A Reception Given to Mrs. Davis and Her Daughter.

RICHMOND, July 1.—The Confederate reunion is on here with General Gordon presiding.

There were frequent calls for Wade Hampton, and, as the South Carolinian walked to the front of the stage, the band struck up "Dixie" while the whole audience arose and applauded. A veteran was passed to the front bearing an old battleflag that had been shot through in many places and waved it before the vast assemblage. When General Hampton was permitted to speak some one cried "Louder, louder!" "I used to be able to speak loud enough to make you charge," replied General Hampton. Words, he said, could not express his gratitude for the great honor which has been done him.

He had come to mingle with the veterans, perhaps for the last time, and do honor to memory of that great man, President Davis. The general said he would be still fighting now if the Confederate flag was waving. [Great applause.] He had no apology to make for his course. When his state called upon him he went into war as a private and served his country as best he could. The speaker paid a beautiful tribute to the private soldiers, and in conclusion said the only epitaph he wanted written on his tombstone was that he was a Confederate soldier.

General Stephen D. Lee presented the report of the committee on history. The report recommended the establishment of a chair of American history in southern colleges and universities, and the more thorough teaching of history in the schools, public and private, throughout the south. The report divides history into three classes: First, those written in the north and are totally unfair to the south; second, those written in the north and deal fairly with the south; third, those written in the south.

A reception was given in honor of Mrs. Jefferson Davis and her daughter, Mrs. Hays, in the Confederate museum last night by the regents of that institution. The museum is the building formerly the white house of the Confederacy.

TELLER REFUSES TO SAY.

He Might and Might Not Accept, If Given a Chance.

DENVER, July 1.—Senator Teller arrived here today and was accorded a big reception tonight. He was asked if he would accept the Democratic nomination for president. He answered: "I should prefer not to answer that question. No man can accept or decline that which has never been tendered him."

"Do you think the nomination of Boies or Bland would be acceptable to the free silver Republicans of the Rocky Mountain states?"

"Yes, I think our people would support either of those gentlemen, or any other man of good character and ability who is recognized by those favoring the free coinage of silver."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The First U. P. Sunday school will picnic at Rock Spring tomorrow.

Anthony Smith, of Gardendale, is erecting a new dwelling house at that place.

A number of young people from here attended a festival at Ohioville last night.

Clarence L. Grey, bookkeeper at Goodwin's pottery, is confined to his home by illness.

The household effects of William Wible arrived here from Holly this morning.

Ed Davidson, yesterday afternoon, purchased a fast driving colt from Fredericktown parties.

The Akron pottery is rushed with orders, and will only loaf three days, starting in full on July 7.

The Boston club secured 12 hits from Mercer's delivery yesterday, and won from Washington by a score of 8 to 3.

Engineer George will go to Lisbon tomorrow to give testimony in a case in which the city of Wellsville is defendant.

I. Bently Pope, wife and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Thompson Place, will leave tomorrow for a trip to Atlantic City and Trenton.

The idea of erecting a telephone to Spring Grove campground has been dropped, owing to a lack of interest in the plan by residents of the grove.

Rev. R. B. Whitehead went to Canton this morning to attend the Christian Endeavor convention in session at that place. He will make two addresses there.

The Columbian club entertained themselves and a large number of friends at Rock Spring last evening. It was one of the most pleasant social events of the summer.

The kilnhands at Harker's pottery formed a camping club, and left yesterday morning for Port Homer where they will spend two weeks enjoying life on the bank of the Ohio.

The Irishtown and Young Men's Christian association clubs are playing at West End park this afternoon. The batteries are Costelow and D. McCurran and Ashbaugh and McClure.

"Double Five March and Two Step," is the latest production of Charles L. Tarr, of this city. The march is very pretty, and is fully up to the standard of the rest of Mr. Tarr's compositions.

The Ben Hur will pass up this evening bound for Pittsburgh. The Elaine is due down for Parkersburg today. Transportation of coal fleets has again ceased, owing to the falling of the river.

The Niles team have changed their dates with East Liverpool, and will play them on July 11 and 12, instead of July 6, 7 and 8. The change was made on account of the races at Warren next week.

Reverend Reinartz, Henry Smith and Harry Bentley, delegates of the German Lutheran church, went to Freedom this morning, to attend a two days' session of the central missionary league, held at that place.

The Anglers met last night and decided to go to Harmony, W. Va., where they will camp in the Cheat mountains for two weeks. This is the same range in which the club camped last year, but they will go from 65 to 70 miles farther to the north this time.

All the clay departments of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery closed down today until July 13. During the idleness a few repairs will be made at the China works. A number of wornout flint screens will be removed and replaced with new ones.

While the teams were practicing before the game yesterday a young lady, who was crossing a field, had her white parasol struck and broken by a fly ball. A young lady with her was struck on the head, but not injured, as the parasol served to break the force of the hit.

One day this week, Harry Logan, of Second street, rode across the country on his bicycle, to visit relatives at Imperial, Pa. On the return trip his bike broke, and the unfortunate young wheelman was compelled to cover the remainder of the journey, a distance of 25 miles, on foot.

A team of horses became frightened at the ball ground yesterday afternoon, and in their struggles broke the pole of the carriage. For a time it looked as though they would frighten other teams standing near, but the danger was averted by the prompt action of a well known horseman.

The foundry and enamel works of A. J. Boyce have been unusually busy during the past three months, and the number of employees at work in both concerns have been doubled during the brisk period. Yesterday a shipment of 36 bath tubs was made, and a large number of clay presses are being built.

Last evening as a young man was standing in front of a Washington street business house he picked up a hose which was laying on the sidewalk. Someone turned the water on without his knowing it, and a gentleman who was passing received a ducking, which surprised, as well as angered, him. Explanations followed, and if the boy who turned the water on could have been found both gentlemen would have made it pleasant for him.

ANOTHER DAMAGE SUIT

The Street Railway is Again a
Defendant.

OVER TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS

The Amount is Asked by Miss Mildred Nicely Who Was Hurt in the Franklin Avenue Accident—A Liverpool Woman Wants a Divorce—Mrs. Putnam Won.

LIVERPOOL, July 1 (Special).—The East Liverpool and Wellsville street railway is in court again, another suit for damages having been filed because of the accident on Franklin avenue last July.

The claimant is Mildred Nicely, of Medina county, and the petition which was filed by Cleveland attorneys asks for $10,000. The document states that Miss Nicely boarded the car on Sixth street, bound for Wellsville. When it went over the embankment she received a heavy concussion of the brain, and blood flowed from her ear. She also suffered numerous bruises and cuts on her head and face. She gains her livelihood by teaching school, but since the accident she has suffered so from headache that she fears she will be compelled to resign. She asks $10,000 for injuries and $60 for medical attention. The total damages claimed to the present time, because of the accident, is $70,000.

Application was made today to break marriage bonds, forged in Shire Oaks, England, five years ago. Miss Fannie Beardmore and Arthur R. Foreman were the contracting parties, and it is the wife who asks the divorce. The reason given is extreme cruelty on the part of the husband, who once beat her brutally, and injured her eye. She also wants the custody of their child.

George Meredith & Co. today sued Gus E. Lindner, of Salineville, for $318.02, the amount of a liquor bill.

Mrs. Putnam won the suit against John Lythe & Son, last night, the verdict being for $2,500.

VERY WELL, THANK YOU.

The City Had an Unusually Low Death Rate Last Month.

The death rate for June was unusually low, but few persons dying in that time. Contagious diseases have disappeared from the city, and the people are healthier than for many months. A leading physician, in speaking of it, said that there were less deaths here, in proportion to population, than of any city in the state. He could not explain it, but declared that he had investigated the matter and found it to be true.

GOING TO FAIRMOUNT.

The Hayes Children Will Soon be Taken.

The six children of Mrs. Hayes, who were left motherless by the sad accident on circus day, will be sent to the Fairmount Children's home, in order that they may receive the care and attention which the father is unable to give them. The money collected by the NEWS REVIEW in their behalf has been turned over to the ladies of the Second U. P. church, and will be expended in providing the children with clothing before they enter the home.

STOLE A FEW DOLLARS.

David Brooks, the Expressman, Was the Victim of Thieves.

A few nights ago the home of David Brooks, colored, on Basil avenue, was entered and robbed. The amount taken was $12.50. The thieves effected an entrance during the absence of the family, and were evidently familiar with the house and where the money was kept, for they went direct to the place. Brooks has reported the robbery to the police, and has a well defined suspicion of who the thieves are.

THE KILN COLLAPSED.

But All the Workmen Got Away Without Injury.

While several of the kilnhands of the Union pottery were at work on the roof tearing down the upper part of a kiln, yesterday afternoon, the kiln suddenly collapsed and fell to the floor, dragging the roof down with it. The men at work instantly comprehended the danger, and succeeded in getting out of the way.

Some Pottery Improvements.

At the Thompson pottery a few improvements are being made. A new frame building is to be built at the extreme eastern end of the factory where fire brick is manufactured.

At Harkers' a new floor will be placed in the ship house, and a small building erected.

Hailstorms in the Orange Free State.

The Orange Free State is very nearly as large as England, and just as large as the state of New York. It lies from 4,000 to 5,000 feet above the sea and is mostly level, with some low ranges of hills. The surface is bare of wood, except in a few sheltered spots along the streams, but is well covered with herbage. The air is pure and bracing, much like that of Colorado or Wyoming. There are, happily, no blizzards, but violent thunderstorms are not uncommon, and the hailstones—I have seen them bigger than pigeon's eggs—which fall during such storms sometimes kill the smaller animals and even men.—Professor James Bryce, M. P., in Century.

NOW IT'S ONLY SMOKE

The Commercial Hotel Destroyed This Morning.

TWO OTHER BUILDINGS CONSUMED

A Big Fire in Wellsville—The Loss Is Over $30,000, With Some Insurance. The Alarm Refused to Work, but Firemen Did Well.

The Commercial hotel and two smaller buildings in Wellsville were destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock this morning, entailing a loss of over $30,000, with an insurance of $12,000.

The fire originated in that part of the hotel made of wood, and it is thought, was started in the laundry or in the kitchen. The alarm was not in working order, and the town knew nothing of the fire until some one went to city hall and sounded the bell. The alarm soon spread through the hotel, and the inmates escaped without great inconvenience. Mrs. Martinson, the cook, was taken from an upper room by means of a ladder, and is prostrated today in consequence. The fire burned fiercely, and soon destroyed the hotel, and was communicated to two buildings owned by J. M. Turner. One was occupied by a restaurant, and was soon destroyed. The hotel was owned by T. H. Silver, and was insured. Landlord E. W. McGinniss will lose a considerable amount on the furniture. The hotel was being remodeled, and was on fire several weeks ago. While the flames were doing the work of destruction the firemen worked hard and did well. The pumps at the water works were started, and the pressure was so great that the hose burst.

ODD WAYS OF MAKING MONEY.

Rabbit Bones as Scarfpins and Miniature Real Live Oaks.

In the backbone of a rabbit is a joint bearing a remarkable resemblance to a fox's head. Lightly painted brown, a couple of beads for eyes, a cheap pin affixed, and lo! a real sporting scarfpin is produced at a nominal cost.

At the time of calling in the French coins, which were freely passing in England for pennies, many dollars were made by ingenious individuals converting them into rings as souvenirs, this being done by cutting out the center, turning the rim inside out, leaving the inscription inside. Many of these rings are still to be seen among the poorer folk, worn as wedding rings.

Acorn gathering may be the means of putting a few shillings in the pockets of the country folk by picking them up for the farmers, but it did not seem the quickest way to a fortune by one thoughtful son of toil.

So he planted a piece of his ground with thousands of acorns, and when they were small plants he carefully removed daily such as he wanted, with the mold round, and moss wrapped each root and started his father to hawk them in the nearest towns, and a remarkably good idea it turned out.

The request of the old man to "buy a real British oak, mum," generally secured a purchaser, the ladies being charmed with the plant and the prospect of watching its growth into a sturdy tree.—Odds and Ends.

Moonshine Whisky.

Says a revenue agent: "There is a great popular misunderstanding about moonshine whisky. It is nothing but raw highwine—the crudest kind of whisky—and most of it is made right in the big cities. You take a barrel of molasses, some yeast and a still, such as many people use for distilling water, or even less than that, you can let the vapor pass through a glass pipe covered with cold water, and you can make all the moonshine you want. The foreigners in New York city make thousands of gallons of it for private use in this way. All whisky is white as water when first made. If kept in glass it remains white for years, as you see in the case of Irish and Scotch whisky. Put into wood it will in time darken, owing to the rotting of the oils. Moonshine is usually white because not kept long enough to darken, or, if kept, being usually stored in bottles or jugs."—New York Tribune.

Singular Compliment.

An author some time ago received a singular compliment. A burglar broke into his house and found the manuscript of a novel, which he took, leaving the following note: "Sir—I began to read your novel, and I was so deeply interested in it that I was obliged to carry it away, but it will be faithfully returned when finished." The manuscript was duly sent back, with a really clever critique on it.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

A GOOD INVESTMENT.

I own an acre of rich ground, desirably located, alongside the street car line. On this land is a nice 6-room house, with water upstairs and down; house in the best of repair. I want an experienced greenhouse man to locate here. Will erect three greenhouses and give said expert a splendid chance in business. For full information, terms etc., apply at

The Street Railway is Again a
Defendant.

OVER TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS

The Amount is Asked by Miss Mildred Nicely Who was Hurt in the Franklin Avenue Accident—A Liverpool Woman Wants a Divorce—Mrs. Putnam Won.

Lisbon, July 1 (Special).—The East Liverpool and Wellsville street railway is in court again, another suit for damages having been filed because of the accident on Franklin avenue last July.

The claimant is Mildred Nicely, of Medina county, and the petition which was filed by Cleveland attorneys asks for $10,000. The document states that Miss Nicely boarded the car on Sixth street, bound for Wellsville. When it went over the embankment she received a heavy concussion of the brain, and blood flowed from her ear. She also suffered numerous bruises and cuts on her head and face. She gains her livelihood by teaching school, but since the accident she has suffered so from headache that she fears she will be compelled to resign. She asks $10,000 for injuries and $60 for medical attention. The total damages claimed to the present time, because of the accident, is $70,000.

Application was made today to break marriage bonds, forged in Shire Oaks, England, five years ago. Miss Fannie Beardmore and Arthur R. Foreman were the contracting parties, and it is the wife who asks the divorce. The reason given is extreme cruelty on the part of the husband, who once beat her brutally, and injured her eye. She also wants the custody of their child.

George Meredith & Co, today sued Gus E. Lindner, of Salineville, for $318.02, the amount of a liquor bill. Mrs. Putnam won the suit against John Lythe & Son, last night, the verdict being for $2,500.

VERY WELL, THANK YOU.

The City Had an Unusually Low Death Rate Last Month.

The death rate for June was unusually low, but few persons dying in that time. Contagious diseases have disappeared from the city, and the people are healthier than for many months. A leading physician, in speaking of it, said that there were less deaths here, in proportion to population, than of any city in the state. He could not explain it, but declared that he had investigated the matter and found it to be true.

GOING TO FAIRMOUNT.

The Hayes Children Will Soon be Taken.

The six children of Mrs. Hayes, who were left motherless by the sad accident on circus day, will be sent to the Fairmount Children's home, in order that they may receive the care and attention which the father is unable to give them. The money collected by the News Review in their behalf has been turned over to the ladies of the Second U. P. church, and will be expended in providing the children with clothing before they enter the home.

STOLE A FEW DOLLARS.

David Brooks, the Expressman, Was the Victim of Thieves.

A few nights ago the home of David Brooks, colored, on Basil avenue, was entered and robbed. The amount taken was $12.50. The thieves effected an entrance during the absence of the family, and were evidently familiar with the house and where the money was kept, for they went direct to the place. Brooks has reported the robbery to the police, and has a well defined suspicion of who the thieving ones are.

THE KILN COLLAPSED.

But All the Workmen Got Away Without Injury.

While several of the kilnhands of the Union pottery were at work on the roof tearing down the upper part of a kiln, yesterday afternoon, the kiln suddenly collapsed and fell to the floor, dragging the roof down with it. The men at work instantly comprehended the danger, and succeeded in getting out of the way.

At the Thompson pottery a few improvements are being made. A new frame building is to be built at the extreme eastern end of the factory where fire brick is manufactured.

Hailstorms in the Orange Free State.

The Orange Free State is very nearly as large as England, and just as large as the state of New York. It lies from 4,000 to 5,000 feet above the sea and is mostly level, with some low ranges of hills. The surface is bare of wood, except in a few sheltered spots along the streams, but is well covered with herbage. The air is pure and bracing, much like that of Colorado or Wyoming. There are, happily, no blizzards, but violent thunderstorms are not uncommon, and the hailstorms—I have seen them bigger than pigeon's eggs—which fall during such storms sometimes kill the smaller animals and even men.—Professor James Bryce, M. P., in Century.
